Welcome and Introductions
College Pathways Updates:

I. Interim Project Management

II. Re-launch of California College Pathways 3.0

III. Philanthropic Investment

IV. Technical Assistance

V. Spring Blueprint Conference
Interim Project Managers

Career Ladders Project until October 30, 2012
New project managers will begin November 1st, 2012
Continuity between organizations – Devon Werble
Re-Launch 3.0

New website:
specific areas for three target
audiences: Youth, Caring Adults,
Campus Professionals

Annual Report: will be released this fall and have a customizable insert for individual campuses to include their own data

Support to funded and unfunded campuses:
technical assistance available
Philanthropic Investment

- Will continue to invest in initiative through 2015

- Cluster/networks of colleges by region: encourage sustainable models; network equates to a minimum of 3 campuses in any combination of CCC, CSU and UC, this year by invitation only

- Community College Pathways: refunded with new regional networks of colleges

- Spring Blueprint Conference 2013
CSU East Bay
Kevin Bristow

• Renaissance Scholars
  – Located in the EOP office
  – Synergistic wraparound model of support

• Key Partnerships
  – On Campus
    • EOP
    • Financial Aid
    • Campus Housing
    • Admissions
    • Library
    • Health Center
    • Social Work Department
    • Accounting
    • Academic Senate
    • Title IV-E
  – Off Campus
    • ILSP/Beyond Emancipation
    • AC Foster Youth Alliance
    • Laney College
CSU East Bay

• Remediation
  – New policy
  – Summer Bridge
  – Midterm progress reports
  – Holds

• Freshmen vs. Transfers
  – Usually more freshmen
  – Not always a good thing
  – Transfers usually more reliable and successful
Laney College

RAE HENDRIKSZ

- Based in EOPS
- EOPs organizational structure
- Partnership with Beyond Emancipation
  - b2b
- On campus support and structure
- Budget cuts
- Foster youth identification on campus
- Word of mouth
- Challenges
- Connections to CSU/UC partners
WRAP-UP/QUESTIONS?

Next Webinar Coming: September 2012
What future webinar topics would be helpful?